REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to show or fairly suggest a gaming method and a server connected to a plurality of client terminals in a gaming system as set forth in independent claims 1, 22, 29, 31, 33, 35 and 37. Specifically, the method comprises receiving at a server a purchase request for a wager from a patron at a first client terminal before a game play has begun; storing, at the server, the results of the wager in a database before the game play has begun; adjusting, at the server, an account of the patron based on the results of the wager before the game play has begun; receiving, at the server, from a second client terminal during the game play, a request to reveal the results of the wager; and sending, from the server, the results of the wager to the second client terminal during the game play.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
